

William and Mary of England, Scotland, France, & Ireland King & Queen Defend of y^e Faith &c. To all to whom these our present Letters shall come, Greeting. Being our trusty and well-beloved Subjects constituting y^e Hon^{ble} Assembly of our Colony of Virginia, to y^e end y^e Church of Virginia may be furnished with a Seminary of Ministers of y^e Gospell, & y^e y^e Faith may be piously educated in good Learning & Manners, & y^e Christian faith may be propagated amongst y^e Western Indians to y^e glory of Almighty God, have had it in their minds & proposed to y^e selves to make, found, & Establish a certain place of Univerfall Study, or a perpetual Colledge for sacred Theology, Philosophy, y^e Languages, & other good Arts & Sciences, consisting of one President, Six Masters or Professors & one hundred Scholars more or less according to y^e ability of y^e Colledge, & y^e Statutes of y^e same, to be made, increased, diminished, or changed upon y^e place by certain Trustees nominated, & elected by y^e Hon^{ble} Assembly aforesaid, (to wit) Tho^s trusty & well-beloved Francis Nicholson our Lieut^{nt} Governour of our Colonys of Virginia & Maryland, William Cole, Ralph Wormley, William Byrd, & John Lee Esq^r: James Blair, John Farnifold, Stephen Faues, & Samuell Groy, Clerks; Thomas Milnor, Christopher Robinson, Charles Scarborough, John Smith, Benjamin Harrison, Miles Cary, Henry Hartwell, William Randolph, & Matthew Page Gent^l: or the major part of y^e, or of y^e longest lives of y^e, on y^e South Side of a certain River commonly called York-River or Appomattox where y^e Hon^{ble} Assembly of Virginia shall think more fitt & expedient in our Colony to be upheld and maintained in all times coming. Seeing also our trusty & well-beloved y^e Hon^{ble} Assembly of our Colony aforesaid Rays, by our beloved in Christ James Blair Esq^r: y^e Agent lawfully constituted, humbly Suppliated Us y^e Wee would be graciously pleased not only to grant Our Royall Licenes to y^e P^r. Francis Nicholson, W^m Cole, Ralph Wormley, W^m Byrd, John Lee, James Blair, John Farnifold, Stephen Faues, Sam^l Groy, Tho^s Milnor, Christopher Robinson, Charles Scarborough, John Smith, Ben^g Harrison, Miles Cary, Henry Hartwell, W^m Randolph & Mat^h Page to make, found, erect, and establish y^e Colledge, but also y^e we would extend our Royall bounty

Copy of the Charter for Colledge in Virginia